Ignition Interlock Device Program
Questions for Vendors

1. How does this industry typically provide reasonable statewide coverage for installation, inspections, and maintenance of these devices or are these services subcontracted out?
2. Explain what type of technical assistance and expert witness testimony this industry is typically asked to provide in the event of a criminal prosecution for tampering, etc...
3. Can these devices be recalibrated to reflect possible changes in legislation that might require different readings in the future?
4. Explain how this industry handles indigent offenders.
5. Please provide any brochures or literature describing how these devices work, report data and the report format used by these devices.
6. Are these reports vendor determined or can these reports be customized for the user?
7. Can these devices send data downloads electronically and if so, in what formats?
8. Please provide a list of any other jurisdictions that you are aware of that use these devices.

Vendors are requested to answer these questions and send their responses in writing no later than October 22, 2007, to the SC Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, Attn: William Bray, P.O. Box 50666, Columbia, SC 29250.
